

Dr. Jim Glantz

Executive Coach & Leadership Training

Dr. Jim Glantz is the Managing Partner of The Academy For Leadership And Training (TAFLAT), which is a boutique Executive Coaching and Leadership Training firm.

Jim is responsible for business development, executive coaching, custom training programs for clients, and identifying and selecting the right trainers and coaches for our New Horizons client engagements.

All of our training courses are practical, with easy to use leadership techniques, and are delivered through real business scenarios, simulations, and examples. Our leadership coaching is world-class, and opens up rivers of potential for those leaders.

Jim has trained and coached over 2,000 leaders and employees, ranging from Managers to CEOs.

Jim has helped develop leaders in all industries and sizes, including: Marvel Semiconductors, C.B.R.E., Apria Healthcare, La Peer Surgery Center, BMG Music, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, Payson Growers, CherrCo, BodyBio, and more.

Jim also is the author of TAFLAT's blog, and has written a new book, Worst Practices... in Corporate Training, which can be found on Amazon.

Training Specialties

- > DISC
- > Leadership & Coaching Others
- > Financial & Business Simulation
- > Structured Problem Solving & Root Cause Analysis
- > Change Management
- > Project Management
- > Conflict Management

Past Clients

- > Marvel Semiconductors
- > C.B.R.E.
- > Wells Fargo and Bank of America

Professional Experience

- > Managing Partner, The Academy for Leadership and Training
- > VP of Leadership & Development, The Wonderful Company
- > Head of Organizational Development, Pharmavite
- > Strategic Change Manager, Bearing Point

Education

- > Doctorate in Organizational Development from UCLA
- > Masters in Education, UCLA