

Jim McCarron

Leadership Executive Coach

Jim launched his Executive Coaching career after serving in leadership roles in two of the largest companies in the residential construction industry and as the Founder/CEO of his own successful company for ten years. With over 20 years of competitive corporate experience, he is able to offer his clients a unique blend of hands-on operational experience with a strong leadership and coaching style.

Highly recognized for his work building High Performing Teams across industries, with experience in Turnaround Management, Organizational Development, and Change Management, Jim helps organizations create a corporate culture of performance and accountability. Jim combines years of sales and operational excellence with a passion for Leadership Development, making him the perfect ally to drive change, coach business leaders, or be a strategic mentor & trainer for any team within your organization.

Satisfied Clients

- > Kaiser Permanente
- > Helix Medical
- > Hot Dog On A Stick
- > James Capital Partners

Company Motto

“We have the business acumen and leadership experience to train your key management teams. We give you the tools you need to measure results and manage performance.”

Specialities:

- > Turnaround Management
- > Organizational Development
- > Change Management
- > Leadership Edge

Professional Experience

- > The Employers Edge, President
- > RCR Companies, Chief Operating Officer
- > Masco Contractor Services, District Manager

Education

- > University of Alberta - Biomechanics
- > Acadia University - Bachelors in Kiniesiology