

Laura Porreca

Center for Leadership and Development

Laura Porreca works with companies that want business growth. She is a Las Vegas-based speaker, trainer, and business coach, with three decades of communication and leadership experience.

Laura holds a Master of Education degree from UNLV and became TESL endorsed (Teaching English as a Second Language) after completing her Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Miami.

National Board Certified for 10 years, Laura uses her skills in curriculum writing and her knowledge of language and leadership to present dynamic workshops for executives and management teams, making it easy to move the dial on business growth.

Laura speaks professionally on relevant communication trends in marketing, sales, and business growth. She works directly with teams and individuals to develop strategies and solutions that will help achieve desired results!

Education

- > CTE - Teaching English as a Second Language
- > Master of Education
- > BS - Education

Training Philosophy

"My goal is to empower your team members to live a life of contribution while being fully connected. I help strengthen communication, enhance leadership, and reveal how to develop full-spectrum success."

Awards

- > National Board Certification
- > Distinguished Service Award
- > Chalk Talk
- > Teacher of the Year

Teaching Experience

- > College of Southern Nevada
- > UNLV Division of Educational Outreach
- > Clark County School District
- > Nova Southeastern University

Associations

- > National Speakers Association
- > Hispanic Educators Association of Nevada